About Us

IntelliCON is a Threat Intelligence conference inspired by prominent and trusted Cybersecurity Leadership in search of a forum to share information on the latest threat intelligence and AI that is emerging on the scene. We have partnered up with the greatest cybersecurity minds of our time including inventors, founders and C-level security leadership to share with the cybersecurity community the latest in adversary tactics, techniques, and procedures from the Threat Intelligence & Artificial Intelligence. Come join us to learn, network and defend with an intelligence-led strategy. This will be an opportunity to meet the IntelliGuards of our industry, and connect with industry experts, CISOs, and founders that apply people, process and technologies to defend against bad. 2026 will be our 3rd year hosting IntelliCON in Austin, TX.
